The building looks run down on the outside, but has an updated interior rustic charm. We're excited as soon as we walk through the front door. Because we're... arrived early for the evening meal, we sat immediately. We had a total of six antojos in our party and the table was extra big. The tables are big because after ordering the main course all sides are served in a family style... Unlimited. I ordered the Walleye and my wife had butterfly crab. Both doses were more than adequate and resulted in a doozy bag. The Walleye was golden brown, flaky in the middle, very good. On our side we included pickled beets, hand-cut cole-slaw, potatoes with milk showers and warm fresh biscuits. At your request, the server brings apple juice. We are able to make sufficient dents in the portions of food served and decided to make some doggy bags. As a special treat we ordered the local famous coconut cream pie... to go as there was no room after the meal. There is also a top-sized restaurant attached called The Back Porch. I ate there, but it was many years ago. When you travel through this part of Illinois at dinnertime, stop by Grantfork for a wonderful dining experience. There are two things to remember... there's always pie, whether it's fruit or cream, but it's always a very good pie. Secondly, to make cash or cheques, do not take plastic, but there is an on-site ATM. Diamond Springs is known for its foot-high creamy pie and doesn't disappoint. Well it was Highland, IL, picked up by the local newspaper, where Diamond Mineral Springs, offers a seafood buffet for $19.95. Listed crab legs, shell-eating shrimp, salmon, fried shrimp, frog's legs, fried fish, fried mussels, roast beef, ham, turkey, pork chops and much more. Since I'm a seafood lover and my girlfriend isn't. I thought it would be the ideal situation, so I called my son and his wife, told them the big deal, they cared 110 miles with us to eat with us. We sat down and told the waiter that we all wanted the buffet, he said it was located in the next room. We're in line, my girl friend says she didn't see the pork or turkey, but get chicken now. As we go down the line and get to the crab leg, empty, about a dozen people are waiting for me, so I have some frog thighs and some fish to start with, but I couldn't find any shell-n-eat shrimp, so I asked the server at the carving station, where's the shell-n-eat shrimp? He answers, we out of them, I said it was only open for an hour and out! When we got back to our table, I asked our waiter about the prawn and he said I'd check it out for you. He comes back and says they're out. I said leave in an hour? I said: Can you send someone to talk to me about it, no one ever came, so I went back to the cancer leg the second time, still out after the third trip finally got some. He made a return trip and a couple more, I admit the cancer was fresh. So it's me. I wasn't happy about the prawn, so I went up to the lady who seemed to be in charge, asked her about the prawn, she says, She haven't been to the cafeteria in at least two years, so I told her that the employees told me she was sold out, and I told her I read about it in the paper, and that you actually put it in the ad in the local paper. I told him I'd show him on my phone. He replied: I'll tell the board to call and change it. I said: we came here well, thinking both my girlfriend is a friend and I also take care of the menu listed, I said that there is no turkey or pork loin on the table either. Let me not I wasn't very happy to pay 19.95 for my girlfriend to eat a couple of pieces of chicken since she doesn't like seafood. It is never recommended and is a kind of discount or even a piece of pie. So my warning is, if you go to something you read in the paper, it might not be true when you get there.
